"The rhythm of the body, the melody of the mind and the harmony of the soul create the symphony of life."

—B.K.S

Roze Kintner is an experienced Energy Healing Practitioner within the field of Integrative Energy Healing Medicine, working in partnership with conventional and alternative medicine. Roze incorporates multiple healing modalities into one service while working with the complete energetic anatomy, and the core of our essence that is interwoven through a complex energetic web. A complete energetic experience creating stress reduction, relaxation, rejuvenation and increased vitality while promoting balance and harmony in our emotional, mental and spiritual body, for our body's natural ability to heal itself and relief from ailments.

Roze uses her highly refined intuitive skills to accurately perceive and remove physical, emotional, mental and spiritual blockages and disturbances. These treatments assist both psycho-spiritual imbalances as well as benefit and reduce many physical symptoms.

As a spiritual advisor, mentor and teacher, she helps create healthy boundaries for self-empowerment and space for one's life to thrive, both internally and externally.

Testimonials

Roze is such a Light; an incredible energy healer who also brings insight, clarity and comfort to the heart and mind. Be prepared to laugh a lot, to cry a little, to feel connected and to be human. I felt lighter, rejuvenated, balanced and empowered to take on the day.

—Jackie M. Endwell, NY

My first energy healing experience with Roze was powerful and enlightening. It made me question everything I already knew, or thought I knew about the human body. She works with such great care, knowledgeable and love pours from her.

—Donna R. Binghamton, NY

I have had several energy healing sessions with Roze, each one deeply powerful, transformational, much needed and a true eye opening experience. Her gifts and skills have helped bring me relief and a release of some long-standing shoulder pain. In addition to that healing, Roze has begun teaching me how to include that same energy healing into my daily living as well as ways to offer it to my clients. What impresses me the most is her genuine love and warmth, knowledge, intuition, care and compassion. My quality of life has been improved, I look forward to many more sessions with her.....you, too, will benefit from a session with her.

—Marci W, Medical Office Assistant/ LMT, Waverly, NY
